

Stage 1 Domains	Descriptors	ALS provider	ALS instructor
Team Working	A. Actively participates and contributes to the work and success of a team B. Demonstrates appropriate clinical leadership behaviour in the workplace C. Demonstrates the importance of non-technical behaviour in the functioning of a successful team D. Describes leadership responsibilities E. Explains why effective leadership is central to safe and effective care F. Provides, accepts and acts on constructive and appropriately framed feedback	✓ ✓ ✓ ✓ ✓ ✓	✓ ✓ ✓ ✓ ✓ ✓
Safety and Quality Improvement	H. Demonstrates the importance of the non-technical aspects of care such as situation awareness, task management, decision making and team working in anaesthetic practice I. Understands the importance of interpersonal skills, structured communication and the use of cognitive aids in managing critical emergencies, and recognises the role of simulation in rehearsal	✓ ✓	✓ ✓
Education and Training	D. Explains the role of different learning opportunities, within the workplace and beyond, making use of a range of techniques including e-learning and simulation E. Explains the need for, reflects and acts on feedback on their education and training, including at local, regional and national level H. Promotes and participates in inter-professional learning	✓ ✓ ✓	✓ ✓ ✓
Resuscitation and Transfer	A. Explains the pathophysiology of respiratory and cardiac arrest B. Initiates resuscitation appropriately in all patient groups in accordance with the latest guidelines (adults only) C. Describes ethical and legal issues associated with resuscitation including advance directives D. Participates in debrief sessions for staff and relatives in a sensitive, compassionate and constructive manner H. Explains scoring systems in the management of deteriorating patients, and responds appropriately	✓ (✓) ✓ ✓ ✓	✓ (✓) ✓ ✓ ✓
Intensive Care	C. Recognises, assesses and initiates management for acutely ill adults across the spectrum of single or multiple organ failure E. Recognises and manages the patient with sepsis and employs local infection control policies K. Supports clinical staff outside the ICU to enable the early detection of the deteriorating patient	✓ ✓ ✓	✓ ✓ ✓