List of material to be reproduced
Purpose of reproduction

I apply for permission from Resuscitation Council UK to reproduce the material listed above.

The signatory is authorized to agree on behalf of all parties concerned with the publication to the following conditions:

1. Permission is given only for the purpose stated above.
2. All material is to be reproduced without any alteration, addition, deletion or omission, unless express permission has been given for an approved modification.
3. All reproductions include the acknowledgement "Reproduced with the kind permission of Resuscitation Council UK".
4. Permission is non-exclusive. All use of the material in further reprints, new editions or for any other purposes will necessitate a new application for permission.
5. In no event shall Resuscitation Council UK be liable for any direct, special, incidental, indirect or consequential damages of any kind arising out of or in connection with the use of any material published by third parties.
6. Some materials, notably resuscitation guidelines, are based on International Liaison Committee on Resuscitation (ILCOR) recommendations and are subject to review every five years. As such, these materials will have a finite life span. Resuscitation Council UK takes no responsibility for any consequences arising from the use of obsolete material contained in any publication for which consent for publication has been granted.
7. Copyright remains the property of the copyright holder (Resuscitation Council UK).
8. The reproduction of all material is being undertaken to promote good practice.

9. Resuscitation Council UK gives no warranty or undertaking that all necessary rights, releases or consents which may be required are currently available or will be obtained in the future.
