

Safeguarding Statement

RCUK does not provide direct services to the community, however we support and uphold the principles of safeguarding.

RCUK is committed to:

- providing a safe working environment for all of its people (for example employees, freelance contractors, trustees, volunteers and contractors);
- taking reasonable steps to protect from harm all those with whom we work, collaborate or come into contact with (for example partners, donors, influencers and providers of services to the Charity);

Safeguarding is everyone's responsibility: this statement applies to trustees, members of the team and any person associated with RCUK's activities.
